I AM AN AMERICAN

NISEI SOLDIER EXPERIENCE TRAVELING EXHIBIT

ON DISPLAY NOVEMBER 7, 2026–MARCH 13, 2027

Coming November 7, 2026

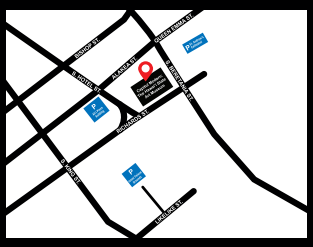

"I Am An American: The Nisei Soldier Experience" is a powerful new traveling exhibit, telling the storied history of American soldiers of Japanese ancestry who demonstrated their loyalty through military service during World War II, amid the racial tension that followed Japan's attacks on Pearl Harbor.

Visitors will witness dozens of firsthand accounts, historical photos and rarely displayed artifacts that present the extraordinary courage and sacrifices of Nisei Soldiers. More than 33,000 Nisei Soldiers served in the U.S. Army, serving in Europe, the Pacific, and stateside, most notably as members of the Military Intelligence Service, the 100th Infantry Battalion, and the 442nd Regimental Combat Team—the most highly decorated unit in U.S. military history for its size and duration of service.

"I Am An American" is presented by the National Veterans Network (NVN) with the National Museum of the United States Army and supported by The Army Historical Foundation.
